Learning Objectives: As a result of participating in this Live Activity, participants should be able to:

- 1. Articulate the elements and benefits of Relationship Centered Communication*
- 2. Acquire one new communication tool to use in clinical practice*
- 3. Explore the barriers and facilitators to successful patient/family and clinician conversations*
- 4. Practice effective communication best practice strategies in a safe learning environment*

Accreditation and Credit Designation Statements: In support of improving patient care, Hartford HealthCare is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

- Physicians: Hartford Healthcare designates this Live Activity for 4.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with their participation.
- Nurses: This activity is approved for 4.00 ANCC contact hour(s).
- Social Workers: As a Jointly Accredited Organization, Hartford HealthCare is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved under this program. Regulatory boards are the final authority on courses accepted for continuing education credit. State and provincial regulatory boards have the final authority to determine whether an individual course may be accepted for continuing education credit. Hartford HealthCare maintains responsibility for this course. Social workers completing this course receive 4.0 general of credit continuing education credits.
